

Detailed Outline

Step:	Screen view:
1.a. Students log in using the name and password they chose during registration.
1.b. The first screen that students see is their account screen. This screen displays their score, the Missions that are enabled/disabled, and a green Play Game button.
1.c. When they click the Play Game button, Monique offers a general briefing, starting with the signature line, “Things are dire.” She then offers a tour: “Would you like me to show you around?”

1.d. The optional tour introduces students to the game and basic navigation.

2. Mission selection from the Situation Map.

- ◆ Students will only be able to select the missions you have unlocked from the Manage My Class page.
- ◆ Choosing a mission automatically brings up a mission briefing with narration.

Important note: Until students click on the Situation Map and choose a mission, they will not be able to do anything else.

3. Selection of operatives to form a team, followed by pushing the Start Mission button

Students preview the operatives by pushing the arrow buttons. They choose by dragging the operative to the operative bar at the bottom of the screen. Available swap points are updated as operatives are added. (See Key to Using Operatives Well, later in this guide)

When operatives are chosen, it's time to push the Start Mission button at the lower right.

4. Profile Match questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ These are pre-assessment questions for each mission. ◆ You may use them to see how your students are progressing. ◆ There are no points assigned for Profile Match questions. ◆ All Profile Match questions, with suggested answers, are included later in this Guide.
5.a. Mission briefing from Monique <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Monique narrates the mission basics, and then offers an optional tour on how to complete a mission. ◆ Students likely will choose to take the tour once, and decline to do so in later missions.
5.b. Optional Tour <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Narrated and animated ◆ Based on Mission 1, but this same tour opens any time a player requests it in other missions ◆ A more detailed Player Guide file is available by clicking on the "Book" icon in the upper left corner

6.a. Finding tutorial information (4-1-1) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Click on the portable reading device to bring this up; this device can be found somewhere in each mission ◆ Or, access is always available through the Backpack on the Toolbar (more on the Toolbar, below)
6.b. Working through tutorial information <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Students gain points and knowledge ◆ Usually the lengthiest part of any mission, but also the part with the most information
7. Answering credibility questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ These come from clicking on the operative's picture at the lower left ◆ Students gain points and knowledge as they answer ◆ There are credibility questions and answers for each of the Mission Steps listed in the bar at the top of the screen; for maximum points, answer all of them

8. Answering Battle questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ These come from clicking on the burst symbol on the lower right at any time (Note that the burst will glow yellow when all credibility questions have been answered in the step) ◆ Students gain additional points and knowledge as they answer ◆ There are Battle questions and answers for each of the Mission Steps listed in the bar at the top of the screen ◆ Students must answer all Battle questions to proceed to Solve the Mission
9. Solve the Mission <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ This is the final chance to win points. ◆ Each mission has self-contained points and scoring (scores are only kept within missions, not across missions) ◆ After mission solution is entered, the player will be given congratulations and a promotion, or a “sorry” message that explains the player failed to solve the mission (i.e. scored less the 80% on the Solve the Mission questions)
