

Modify your Temperature program so that the following happen:

- If the Temperature is equal to or below 50, the following message displays:
 - Your engine is running cold
- If the Temperature is equal to greater than 80, the following message displays:
 - Your engine is running hot
- Else displays the following message:
 - Your engine is running normal